

ENDS AND TRENDS WITH KIM AND KAREN

Karen's Trend Alert: The beginning of a new year signals a time to start looking fashion forward to the spring! If you're already getting a bit bored with winter already, then let's plan ahead for the next season.

Here's what the forecasters predict will be the "it" colors for women this spring:

- Cayenne: Ready for a spicy, high-pitched red? Try this red-hot number.
- Celosia Orange: Radiating lots of warmth, this shade of orange is optimistic and a fresh color for the season.
- Freesia: Spring always needs a shade of yellow and this is it for spring 2014! This blazing yellow will lighten up – and brighten up – your wardrobe.
- Hemlock: A springtime green, this shade of green looks great combined with a bolder hue.
- Placid Blue: Think picture-perfect sky. This blue is calm, tranquil and peaceful.
- Dazzling Blue: The opposite to Placid Blue, this strong, confident hue of blue is a perfect companion to both bolds and pastels.
- Violet Tulip: This romantic, vintage purple appears soft and dainty.
- Radiant Orchid: A bright and cheery purple, this shade is the essence of spring; a striking opposite to Violet Tulip.
- Sand: A great neutral, Sand makes you reminisce of carefree days on the beach.
- Paloma: This quintessential neutral looks fantastic paired with any color; a must-have color this spring.

Next time, I'll have the spring 2014 forecast for men. Until then, happy shopping!
